

Slowly moving, careful not to miss, that one spot that's a mess. You make my life easier, knowing you are running a tight ship, and easing the burden of those boring tasks. Small and sleek to be able to move, bumping and gliding to your own tune. You leave no area unclean, until you wear down. Plus, chores are more fun when we have you around. We can watch and wait as you do your thing. You laugh, when you sneak up on the dogs, and make them jump like buffoons. They run for their lives when you loom.

What am I?? A robot Vacuum
