

This photo represents Vex IQ for many reasons. The first is because of the many challenges that we face trying to do robotics online. For example we cannot make the robots together when we do online challenges which makes it harder to brainstorm together and piece together our robot. It also reminds me of Vex IQ because it shows us working together and problem solving and most of all friendship. I feel this way because I like working with my friends and helping them.