

Description of Photo: 100 word count

How competition is displayed in different activities are similar. In sports, we see faces of frustration and excitement. Here in robotics, we see the same thing. We see facial expressions of pure anger, confusion, anticipation, and focus. This photo is a representation of what we did that day and what we did on many others. We were either waiting and waiting until it was our time to perform or reflecting on what we did.