

An simple, but powerful object

When you look at a remote it looks simple, but it is an amazing object you would not believe what the world looks like without remotes, there wouldn't be tv. There is connection between the remote and the tv. The average American has 3 remotes. It's amazing how you click the remote and it reacts. This is such an amazing device that is needed for people. It has long such battery life. It has so many brands unlike other tech. It is amazing because it reacts fast when you touch the button. This is why it's so amazing.
