

"Thinking Outside The Box" Photography Challenge

(By: Angel Lara)

The image below reminds me of VEX due to the fact that the pandemic does not allow students to return to school. While the online school has been active this school year, my robotics class has been working on a page called VEXcode VR. This image represents the device I have been working on on some VEX assignments this school year.

