

This picture represents our team number made from old and current vex game pieces. Game pieces used are from three different vex games including this years, Rise Above. This reminds me of my vex experience because our team number shows up everywhere during practice whether it's in the notebook or on the robot, I see it a lot. Overall it relates to vex and reminds me of vex because your team number shows up everywhere.