

This picture reminds me of the various parts of Robotics. It includes a laptop which represents the coding aspect. The carrots and sunglasses remind me of the competitions we used to have; the food and traveling to new places was very engaging. We had the opportunity to meet new and interesting people. The screw reminds me of the building aspect which demonstrated our engineering skills. The overarching message of this picture is that various skills and ideas all come together to form robotics.