

Accelerating Accomplishment

This year our team won its second-ever excellence award at the first competition of the season. We were incredibly proud of having an award-winning robot in time for the first competition as it usually takes us several months to perfect our robot.

