Robotics can help me achieve my goals by improving my programming skills. In the future I will be able to become a programmer. One of the jobs I would like to have is cyber security, software developer, and Video game designer. How robotics could help me to achieve this goal is putting my programming and coding skills. In robotics we programs different things and learn different strategies