Dark blue: Hey look! Satchels! We can use these to store resources and keep them from getting to it!

Light blue: Smart thinking.

ACTIONS: Blue team brings their attention to netted satchels hanging on a palm tree and pick up resources and store them inside.

THEME: Satchels represent the alliance mobile goals.

DIALOGUE:

Light blue: Those crates over there seem empty, but they can store the heavier resources we can't carry.

ACTIONS: Light blue points to the empty crates under the palm tree.

THEME: Crates represent the neutral mobile goals

DIALOGUE:

Dark blue: That's a good idea but those guys would definitely steal them when we're not looking.

Light blue: Right, we should watch our back, then.

ACTIONS:

THEME: The crates can be stolen to represent how neutral mobile goals award points to the team that it ends up with.

DIALOGUE:

Dark blue: Oh... and there's that.

Light blue: We should get to building fast. The sooner we're off this island the better.

ACTIONS: Blue team approaches the destroyed boat and examines the damage.

THEME: The boat's damaged state represents a platform that is not yet balanced.

DIALOGUE:

Light blue: We've got this, trust me. I wouldn't have challenged them if I wasn't sure we would win.

Dark blue: Yeah, just one more race. We beat them once, and we can do it again.

ACTIONS: Blue team sits at a campfire

DIALOGUE:

ACTIONS: Everyone envisions themselves returning, to be met with the first place trophy.
