

Photography challenge

Made by Christian, and Andres

505 Easton Rd, Dallas, Texas

505C

Math is everywhere, even in robotics! We are going to explain how this picture shows math. One way this shows math is the many angles in it. Angles are when two straight lines connect, for example angles are used to slant the robot up or down, create curves, and connect pieces.