

3028Y

Owlbots

2023 Theme It Up Challenge
Esteban Monreal, Fausto Flores, Jorge
Cabada, and Joshua Pepper
School for the Talented and Gifted in Pleasant Grove (STAG)
Dallas, Texas

Some changes to the script have been made in the video*

COPS VS ROBBERS

On midnight, August 16, 2022 in the town of Cashville the cops and robbers had long been enemies. From the modern cops and robbers, to the sheriffs and bandits, maybe even the lords and hooligans, maybe oog and boog.

Like every 3rd Tuesday of the month an explosion rang through the night as the robbers blew up the vault. But like always the police are here to try to stop them.

This gives the cops a chance to pick them up and throw them back into the safe. But the thieves have a trick up their sleeves. After years without a pizza party at the office they were able to rent a helicopter for 2 minutes. Which they promptly celebrated with a pizza party.

Due to the explosion spreading the 60 coins around the cops and robbers had to get ready fast. Unfortunately they were both occupied with their donuts and pizza to improvise so they had to use their muscle memory. After that it's a scramble to grab the coins and launch them.

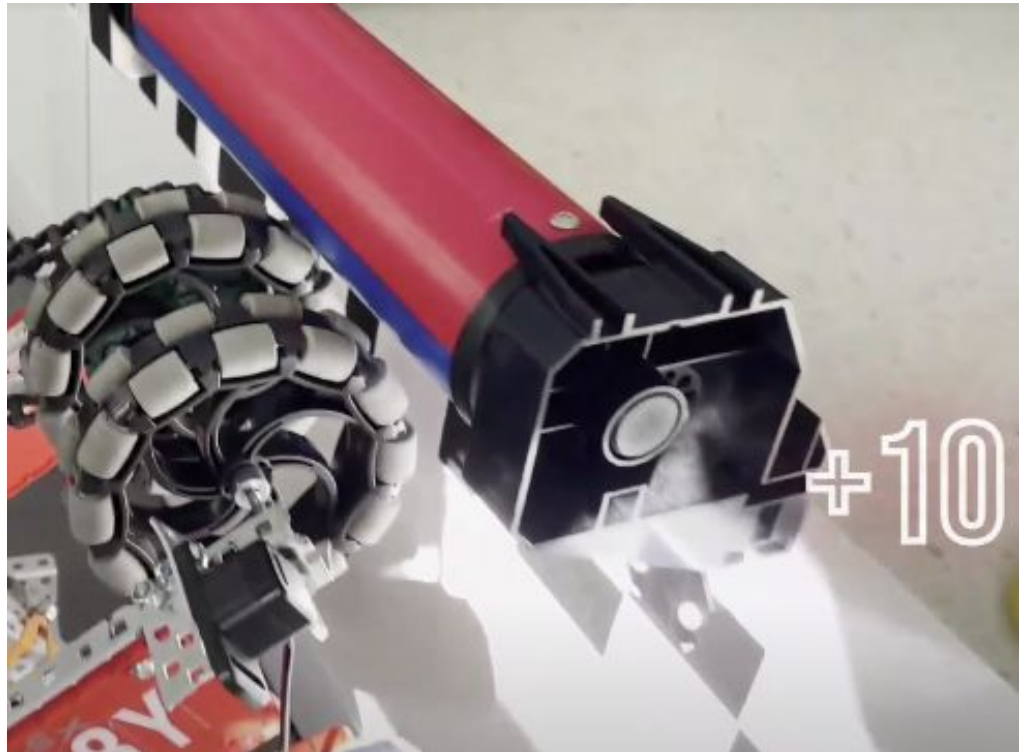

But what I haven't told you is that below the city in the sewers there is a rat named Bob. Bob is a kind rat but he doesn't ally himself with either side choosing to help both when their enemy fails.

You see every time the cops or robbers miss their shot into the helicopter or vault and they land in the sewer he keeps count of how many coins there are in the sewers and once the cops and robbers clear out he gives it back to them with enough damage to make them a $\frac{1}{5}$ of the price.

Back on the surface the battle is fierce but during this both sides have to set their cameras up to prepare for the next encounter.

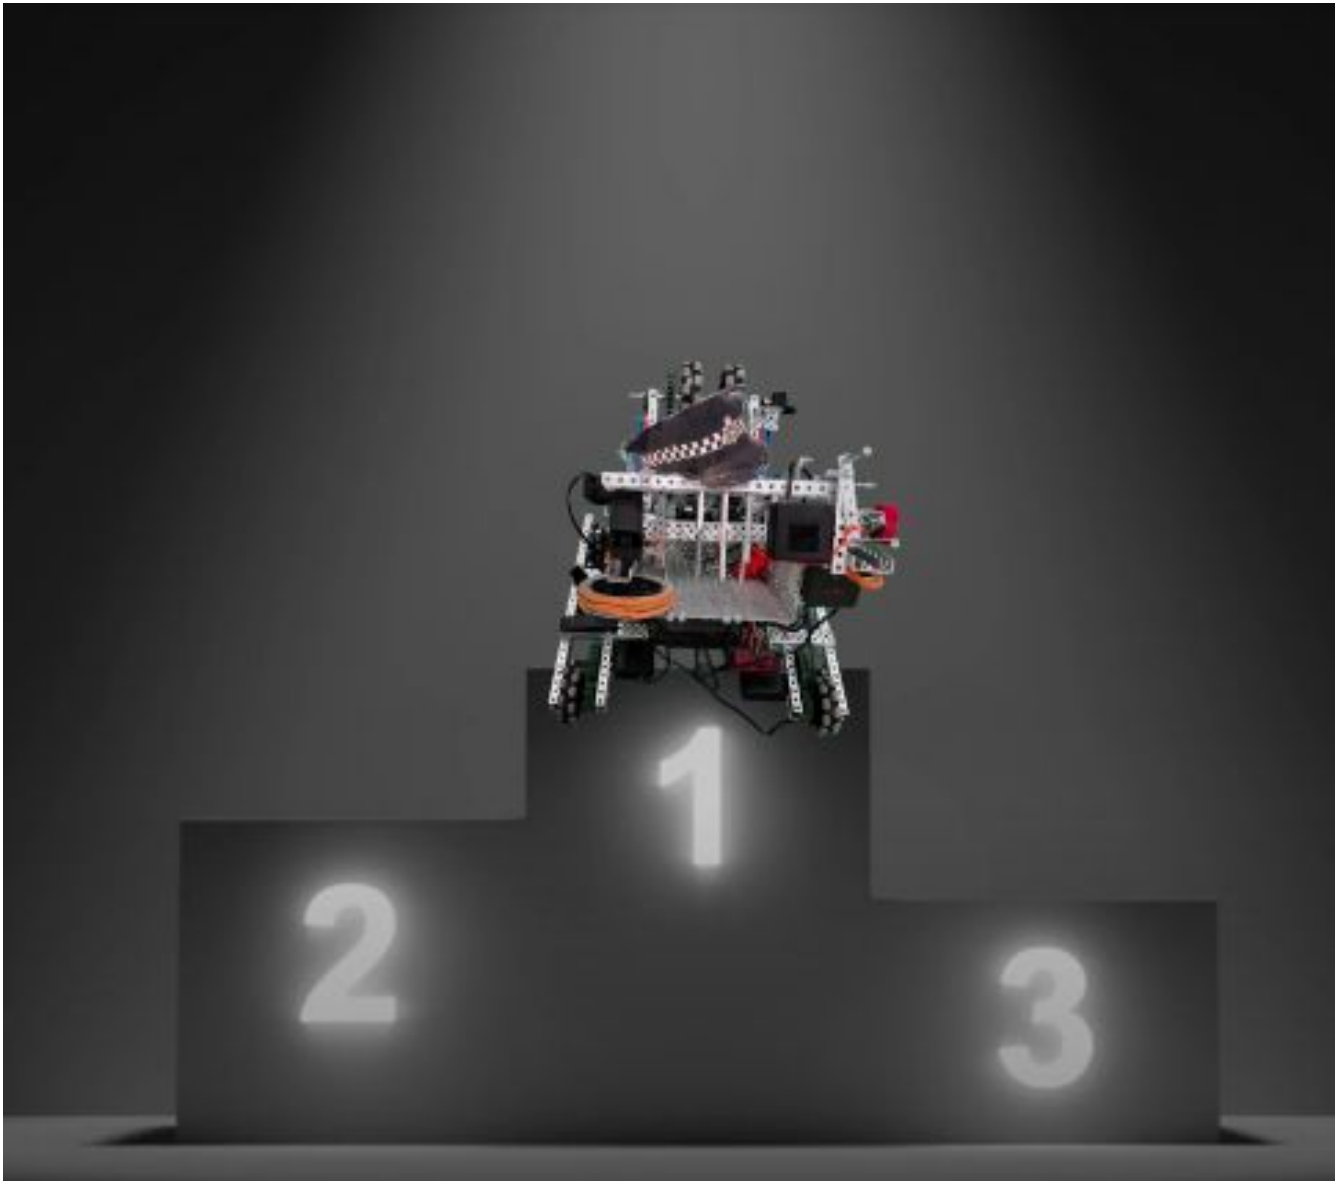

This is also a good source of revenue since the robbery footage is always sold to RTV Robber Television.

After a short battle both sides are ready to leave having tired themselves after a short night's work but before either of them get the chance they know they have 10 seconds to mark their territory to make sure the other side knows which bank areas are being scouted.

But after a short and tiring battle in the end the Cops win!

THE END

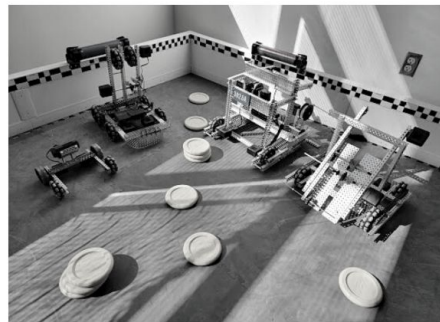

STORYBOARD

COPS AND ROBBERS

3028Y's Theme it Up Challenge Entry
Some revisions were in the recording and editing made to better fit in.

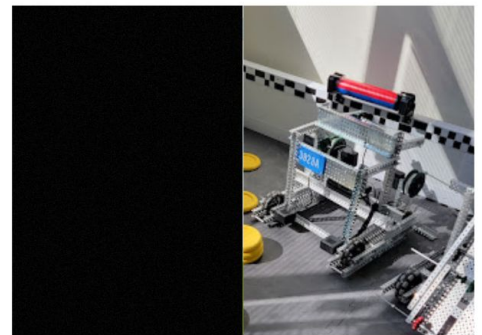

On midnight, August 16, 2022 in the town of Cashville Ohio the cops and robbers had long been enemies.

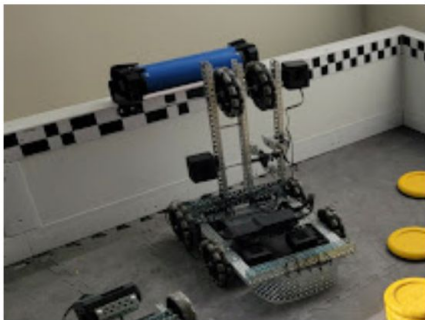

(Same scene)

From the modern cops and robbers, to the sheriffs and bandits, to the lords and hooligans, or oog and boog, and

Cut to black then play an explosion noise. Like every 3rd Tuesday of the month an explosion rang through the night as the robbers blew up the vault. Show robber.

Police sirens sound and the blue robot appears

But like always the police are here to try to stop them.

The explosion you saw from Red Randy and his accomplice blew up the bank vault spread 38 coins all over the bank floor.
Show the discs

This gives the cops a chance to pick them up and throw them back into the safe.

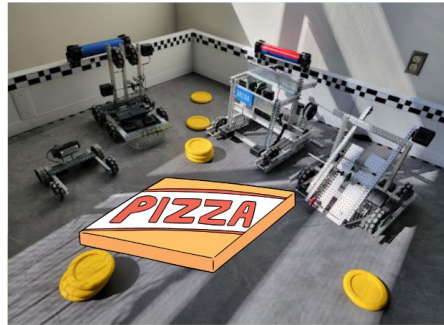

*Show blue high goal
Do this later*

STORYBOARD

But the thieves have a trick up their sleeves. After years without a pizza party at the office they were able to rent a helicopter for 2 minutes

Show Red high goal

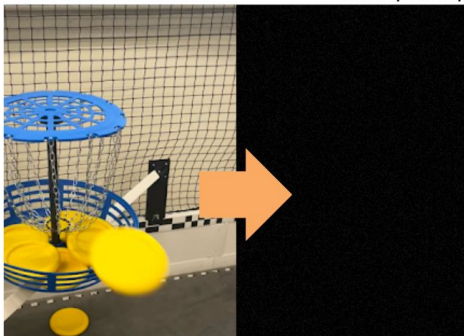

But the thieves have a trick up their sleeves. After years without a pizza party at the office they were able to rent a helicopter for 2 minutes. And then they had a pizza party.

Show pizza party

Due to everything happening so fast the cops and robbers had to get ready in only 15 seconds. Unfortunately they were both busy with their donuts and pizza to improvise so they had to use their muscle memory.
Show 15 sec timer for auton

*During this time they can gather the undefended coins and score them
Play fast music with 5 seconds of game footage cut short by thunder and black screen*

Jump Scare of bob the rat and pan out to the low goal

But what I haven't told you is that below the city in the sewers there is a rat named Bob.

Bob is a kind rat but he doesn't ally himself with either side choosing to help both when their enemy fails.

STORYBOARD

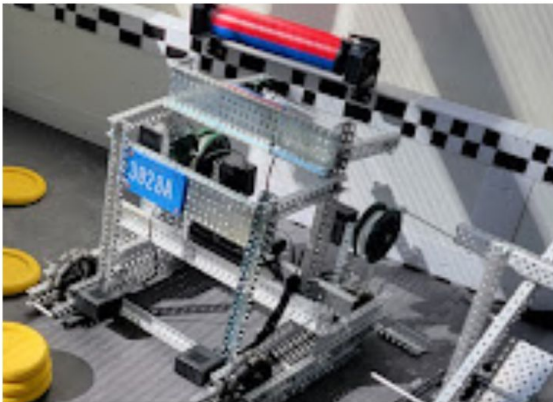

Show robbers missing the high goal

Every time the cops or robbers miss their shot into the helicopter or vault and they land in the sewer he keeps count of how many coins there are then once the cops and robbers clear out he gives it back to them with enough damage to make them a 1/2 of the value.

Back on the surface the battle is fierce but during this both sides have to set their cameras up to prepare for the next encounter. This is also a good source of revenue since the robbery footage is always sold to RTV Network Robber Television Network. Show the rollers

Both sides are ready to leave having tired themselves after a night's work but both of them know they have 10 seconds to mark their territory to make sure the other side knows which bank areas are being watched.

Show the endgame mech working

CREDITS

Narrator and Editor: Esteban Monreal

CREDITS

Storyboarder: Fausto Flores

CREDITS

Director: Jorge Cabada

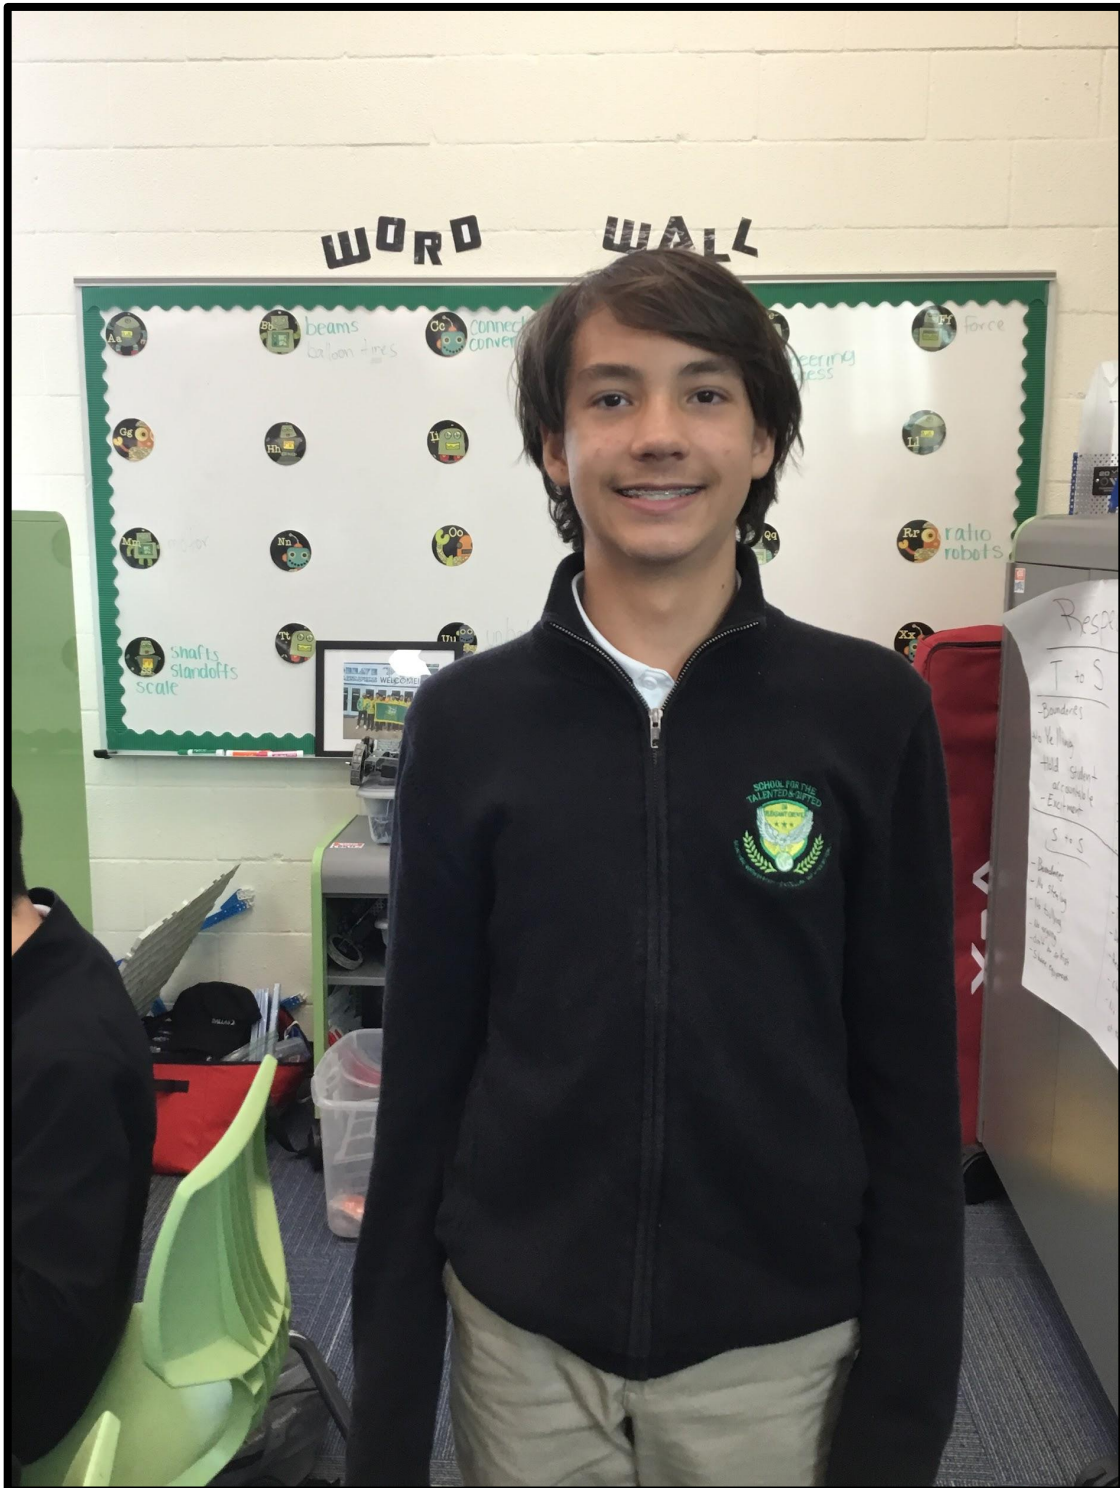

CREDITS

Prop Maker: Alec De Leon

credits

Camera Operator: Joshua Pepper

credits

Special Thanks to Diego for original idea

