DESCRIPTION

This photo of us sitting inside the field while holding a triball, enacting as robots, demonstrates how we are fully engaged in the world of robotics, embodying the seamless blend of technology and humanity. That is why we have entitled this photo 'We Are Robots with a Heart.' Looking from the perspective of a robot adds a human touch to the technical aspects of robotics, emphasizing a deeper connection with the technology we work with. It highlights the synergy between our team and the robots we bring to life and opens opportunities to depict the learning and growth that occur when viewing challenges from a robotic perspective. While all teams' robots have a brain, what makes our team special is that we also have a heart.
